HOW DOES THE VETERANS ERG foster a culture OF BELONGING AND INCLUSION?

If we were asked to summarize our ERGs in one word it would be “opportunity.” Our ERGs provide opportunity for employees to come together, to learn from each other, and for our ACG family members to be heard and seen by colleagues across the company. In addition to offering employees a great way to connect with colleagues who share similar backgrounds and experiences, ERGs enable the following:

Workplace
cultural awareness

Inclusive
business ideas and innovation

Professional career development

Executive leadership
engagement

Corporate
community
engagement

Diversity recruitment and retention
strategies

As a whole, ERGs strive to build a successful and sustainable foundation that represents the diverse perspectives of our employees and members.
